

Setup TeamViewer Host

For all users with OS:

1) macOS BigSur 11.x, macOS Catalina 10.15.x and macOS Mojave 10.14.x

2) macOS High Sierra 10.13.x or previous

Setup TeamViewer Host for all users with OS:

- macOS BigSur 11.x
- macOS Catalina 10.15.x
- macOS Mojave 10.14.x

macOS BigSur 11.x, macOS Catalina 10.15.x and macOS Mojave 10.14.x

Install TeamViewer Host with setup that you have to download from this link:

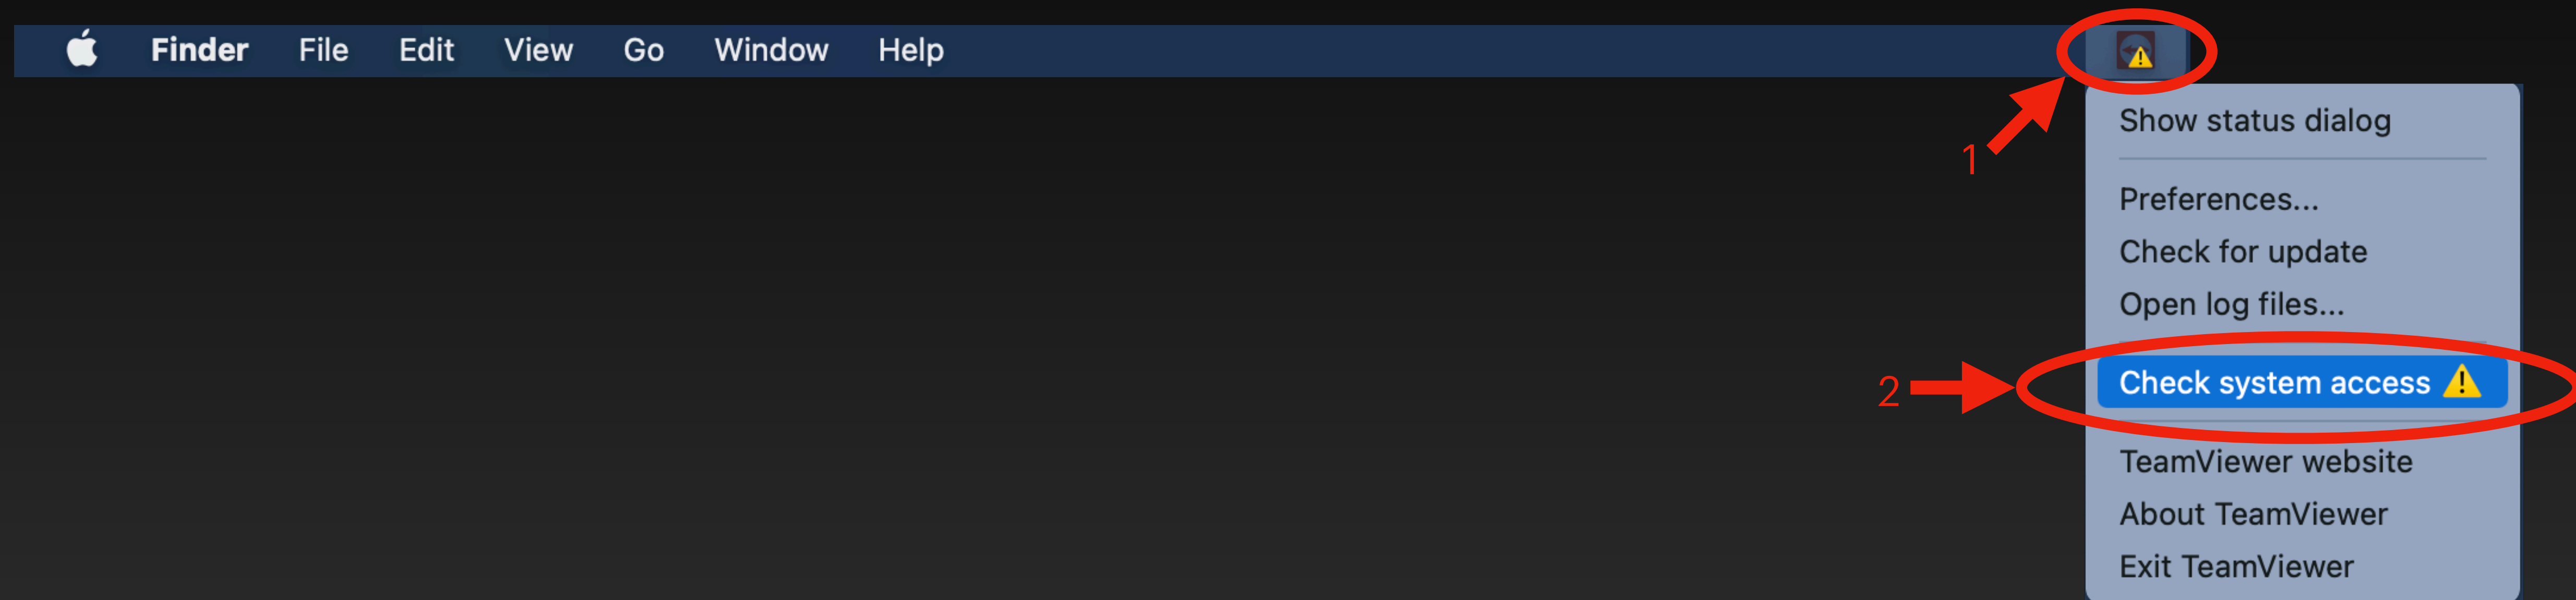

<https://get.teamviewer.com/9jfz8vq>

Once you have installed the setup you have to follow the next instructions to give all the necessary permissions to TeamViewer

macOS BigSur 11.x, macOS Catalina 10.15.x and macOS Mojave 10.14.x

SICS | Largo Giorgio Perlasca 3/51, Bassano del Grappa (VI) - sics@sics.it - +39 042431193

Click on the icon of TeamViewer on the system's toolbar.
It will open a context menu. Now click on "Check system access":

You are now in the TeamViewer permissions control panel.
In this case all the permissions are denied. Click on the second element:
"Accessibility --> Request access...":

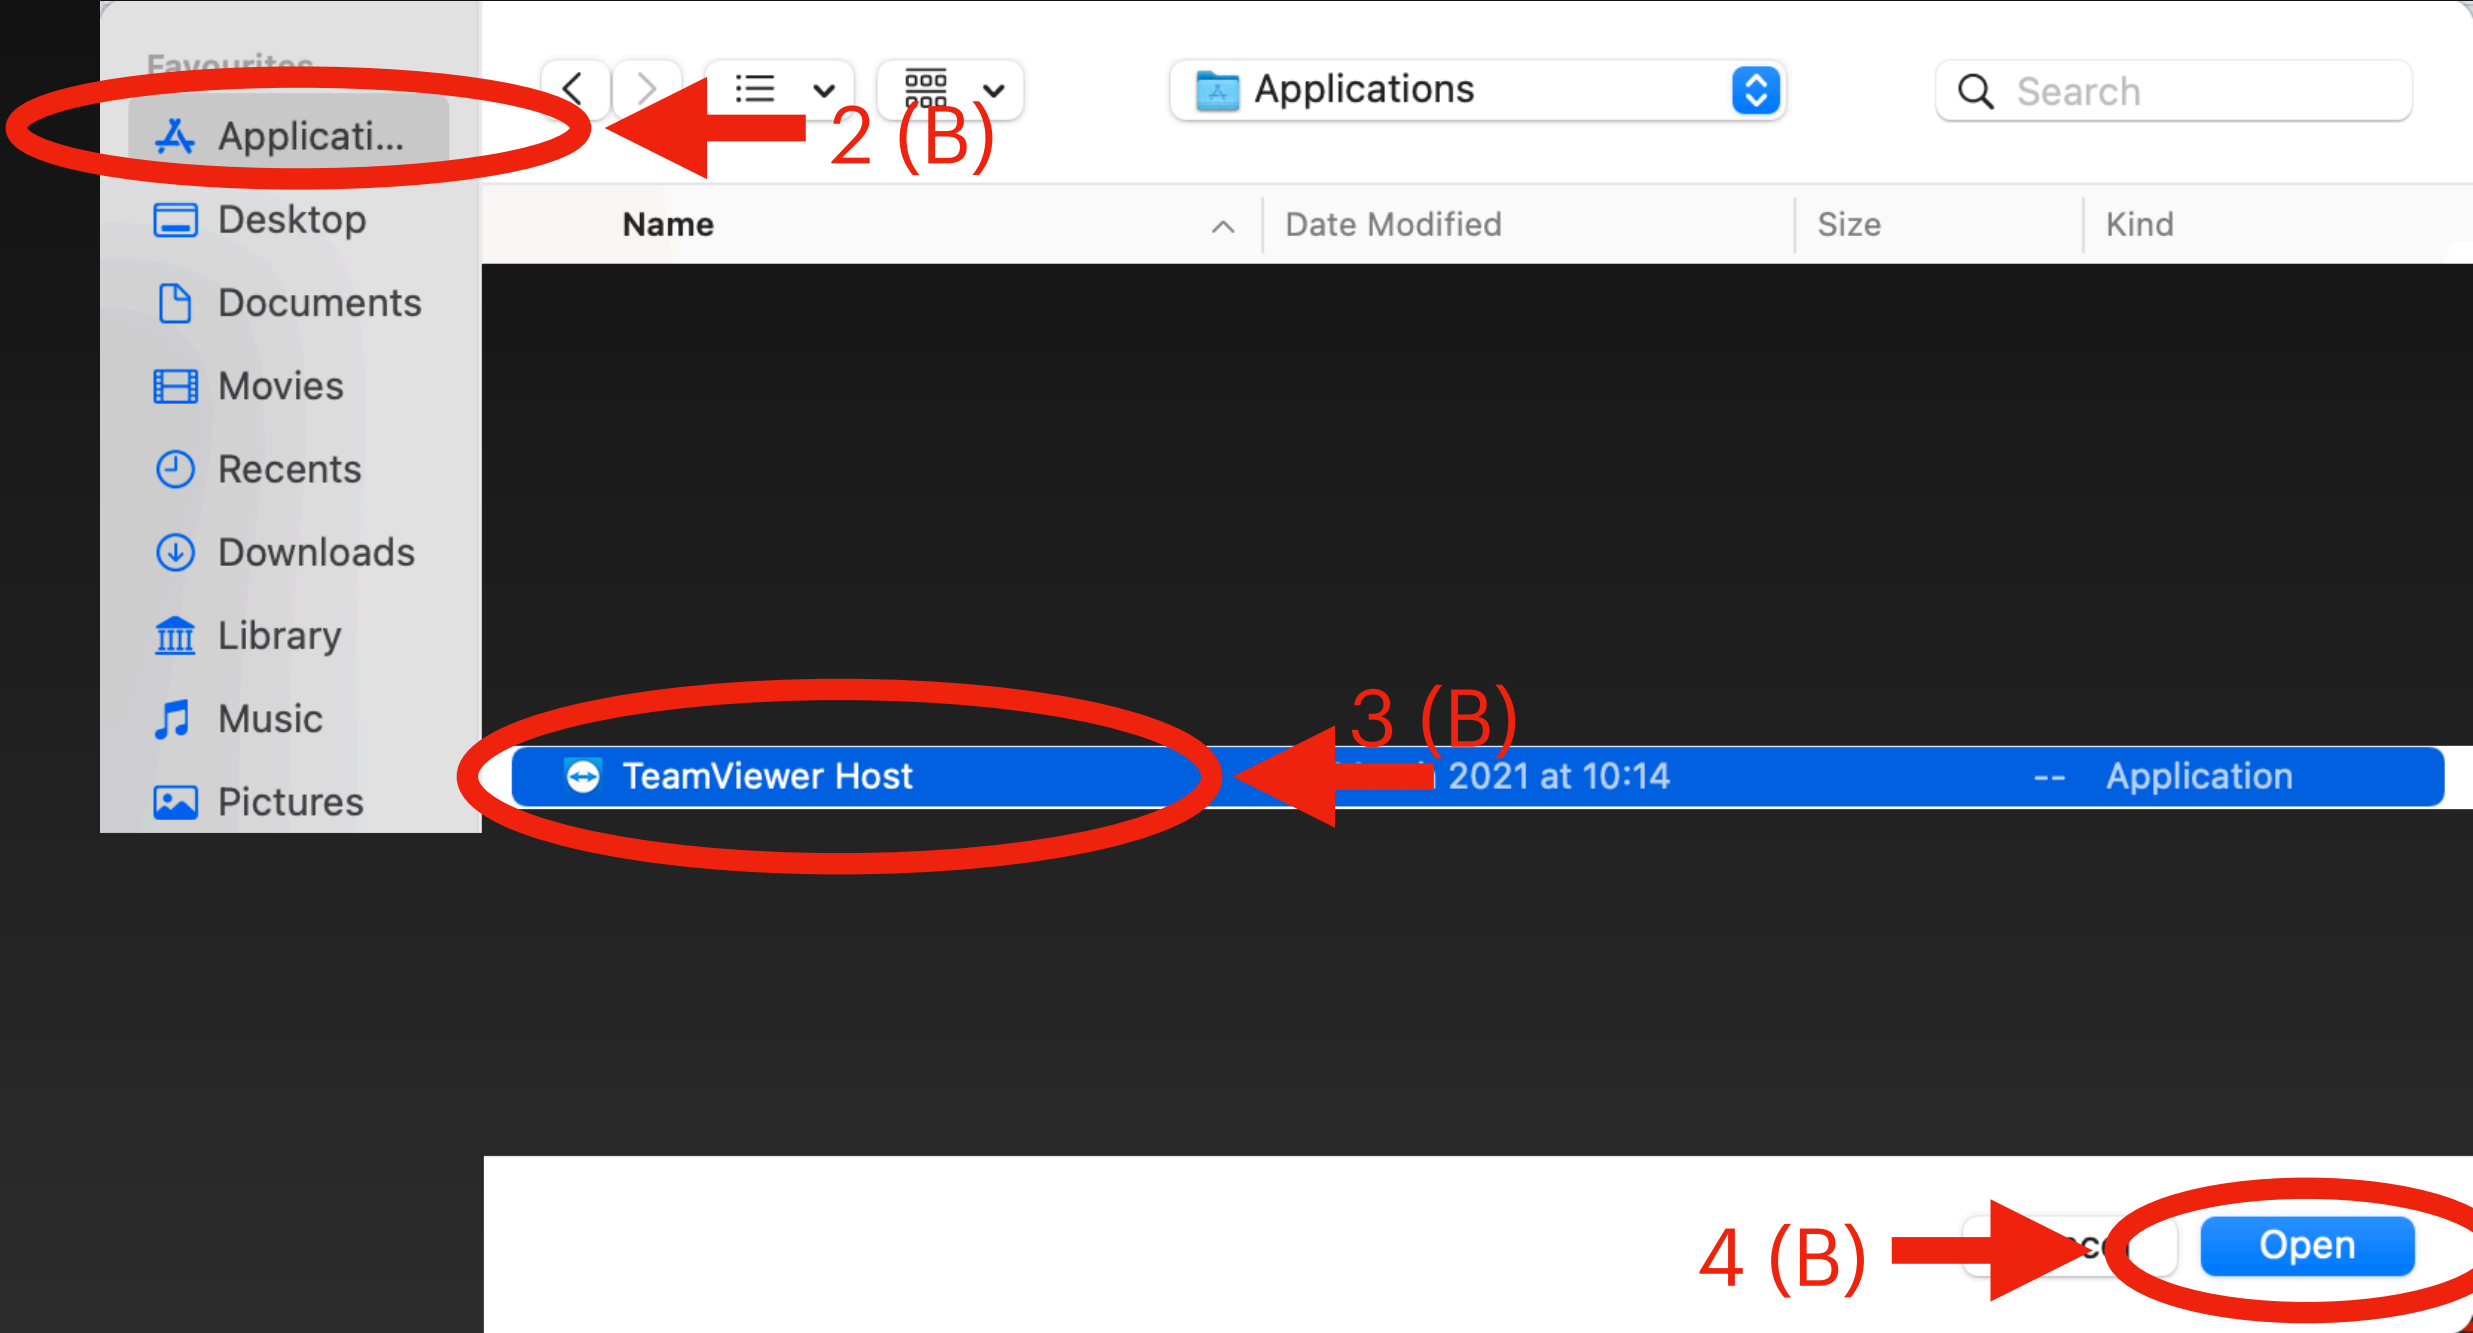

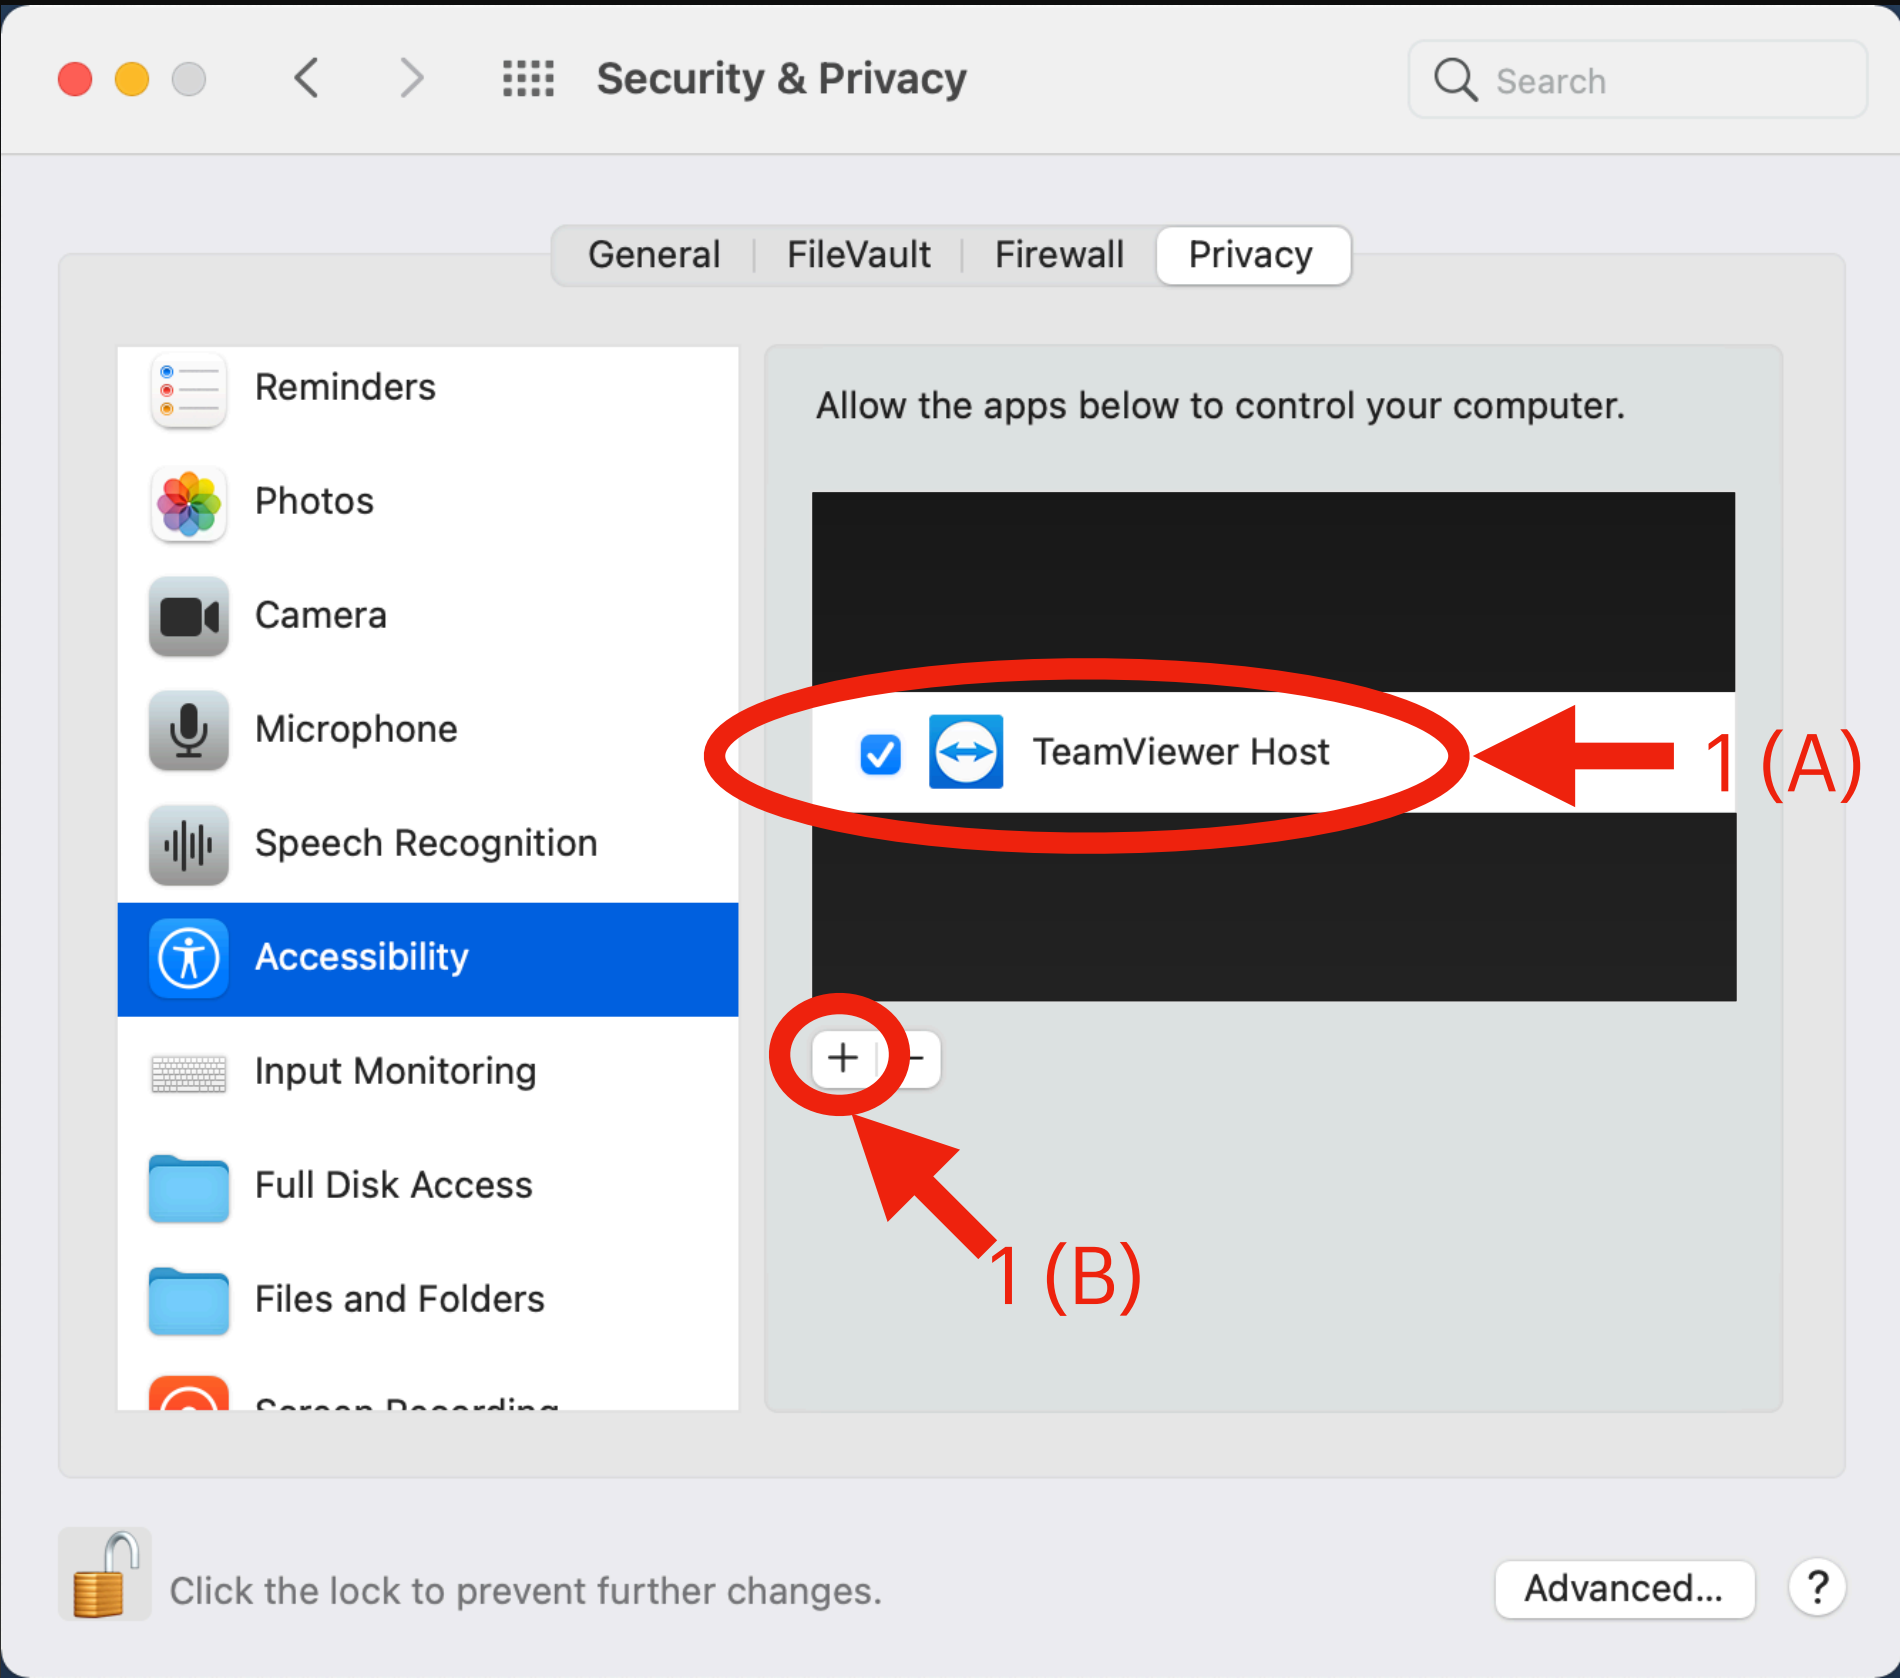

macOS BigSur 11.x, macOS Catalina 10.15.x and macOS Mojave 10.14.x

Now you are in "Security & Privacy --> Privacy" window of your mac.
Click on "Accessibility" tab on the left list and then click the padlock in the bottom left of the window to allow you to modify the settings as administrator. Enter the password of your mac.

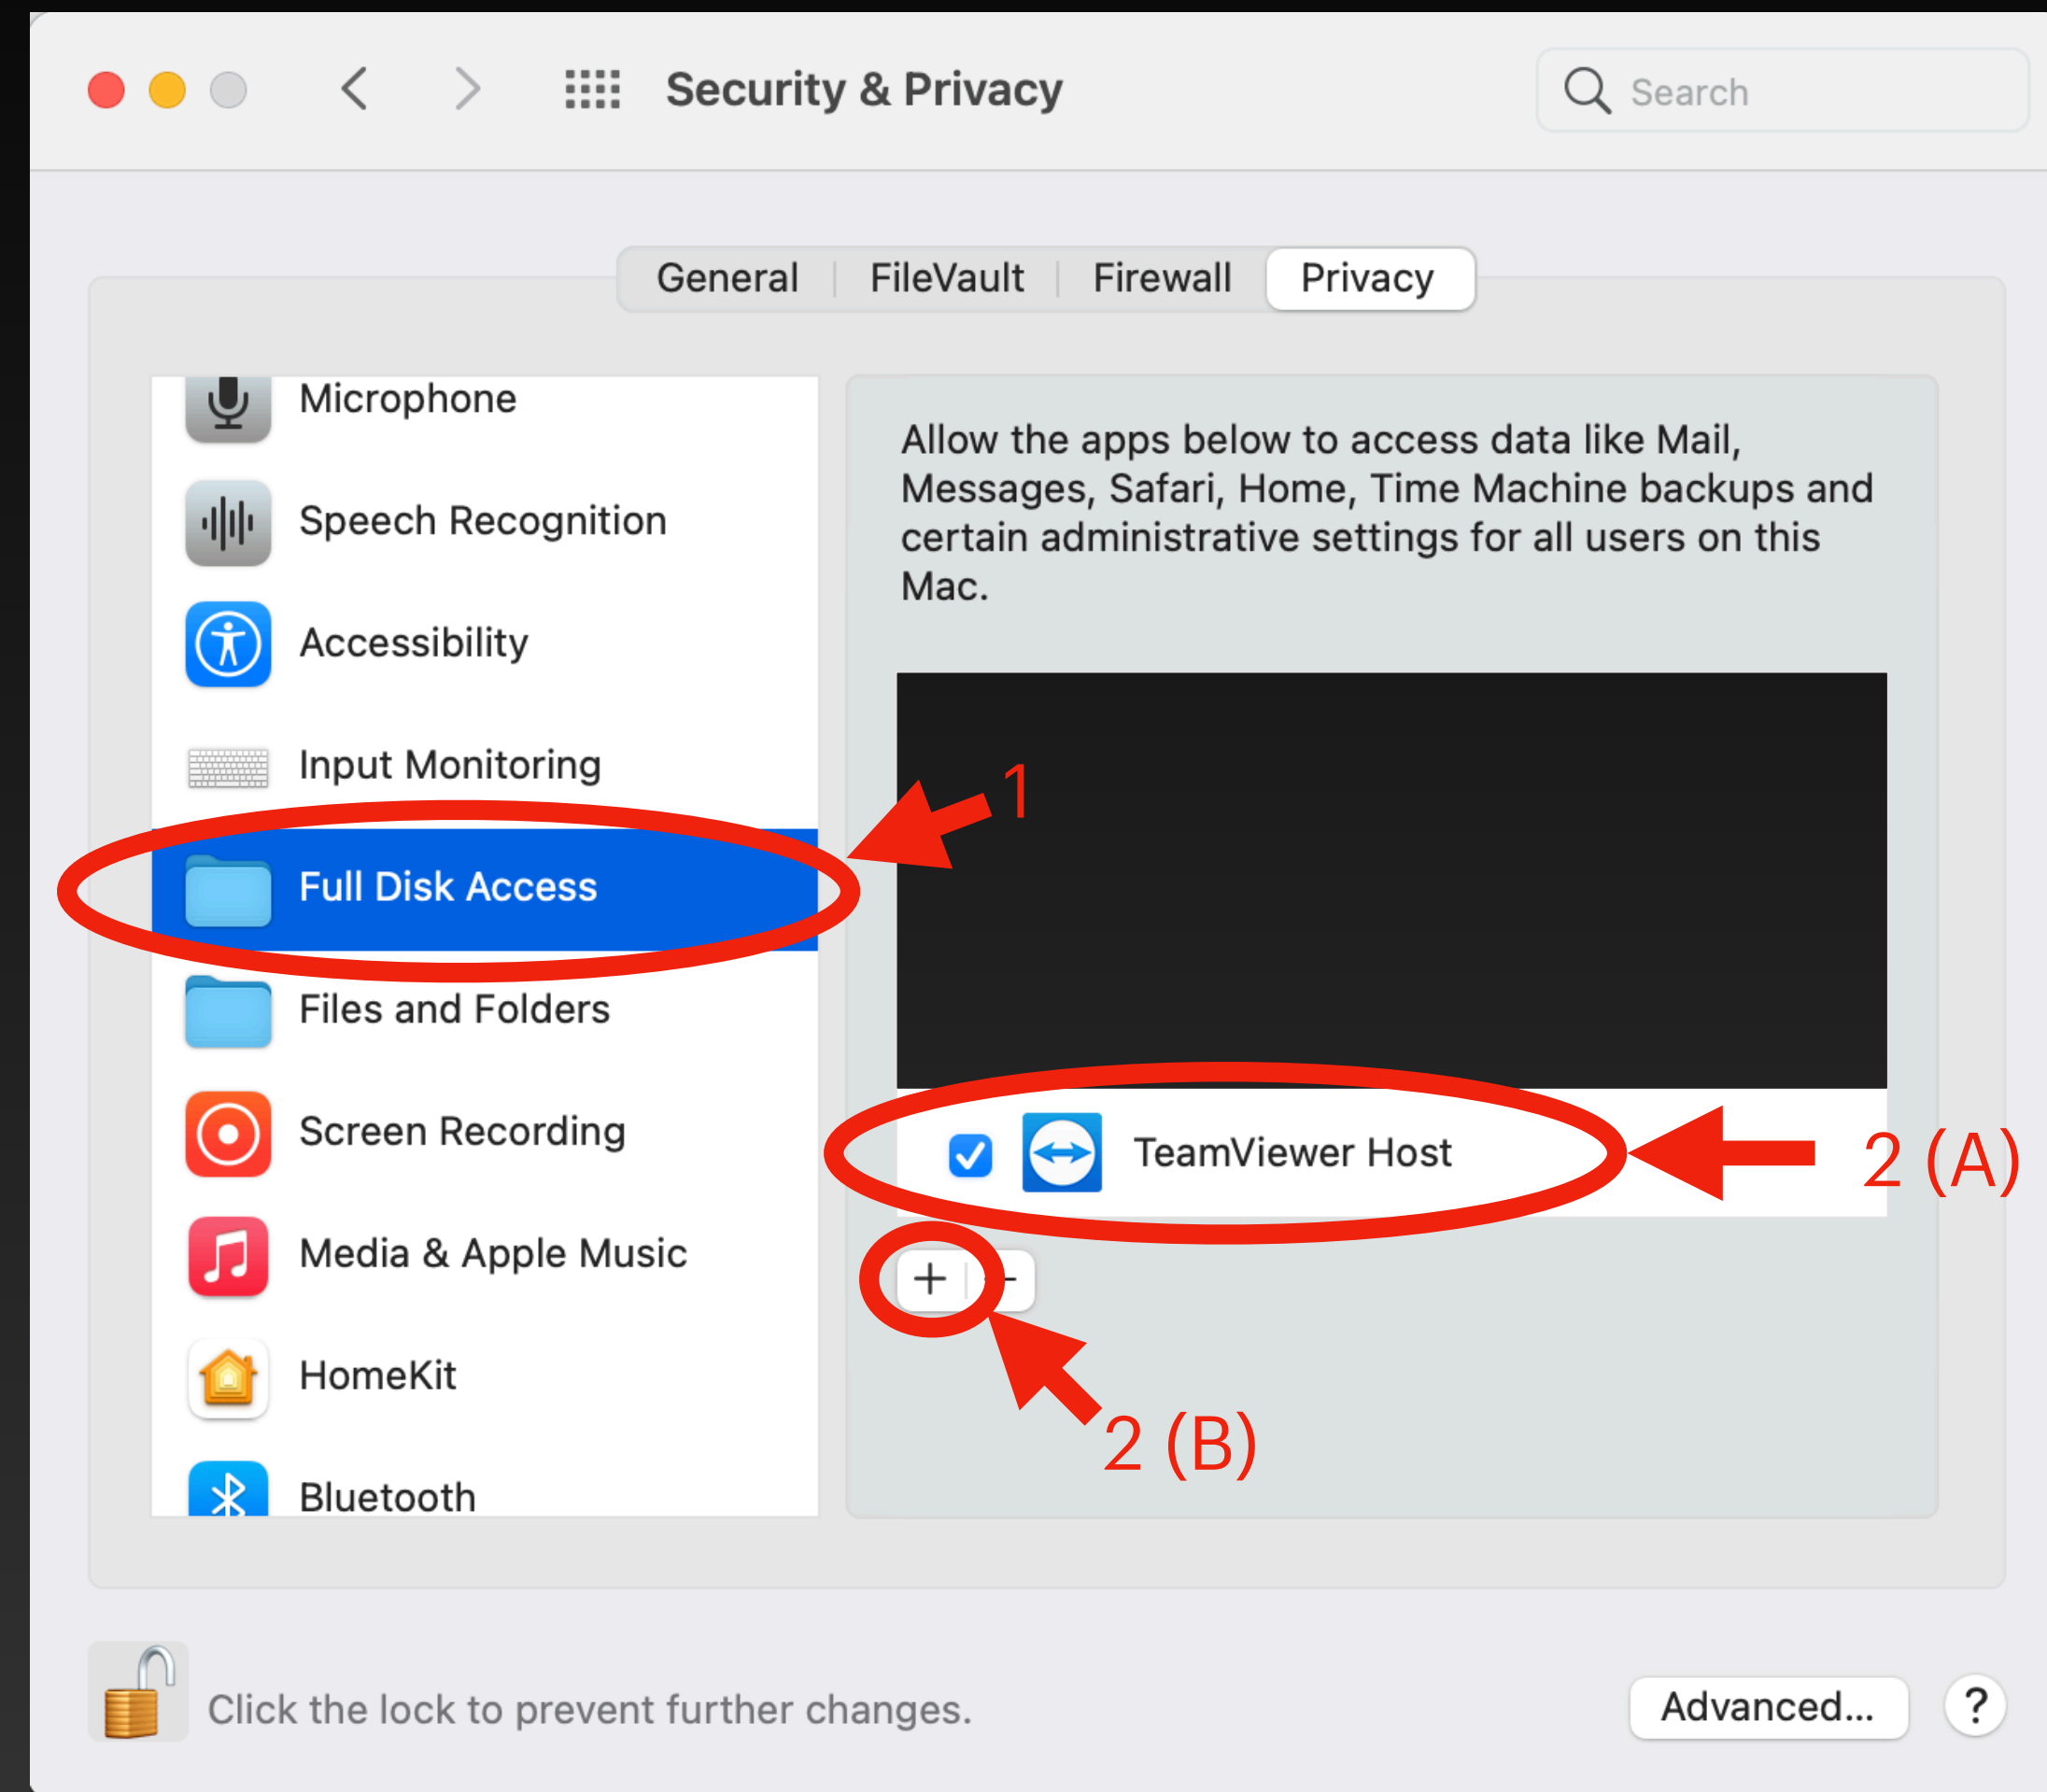

macOS BigSur 11.x, macOS Catalina 10.15.x and macOS Mojave 10.14.x

- (A) Select the TeamViewer checkbox on the right list.
- (B) Sometimes you can't find TeamViewer Host in the right list. In this case you have to add it clicking on the "+" button and then choosing the "TeamViewer Host" application that you can find in the "Applications" folder.

macOS BigSur 11.x, macOS Catalina 10.15.x and macOS Mojave 10.14.x

Let's do the same thing for "Full Disk Access".
If you find TeamViewer Host in the right list then select the TeamViewer checkbox (A). Add it like described in the previous page (B).

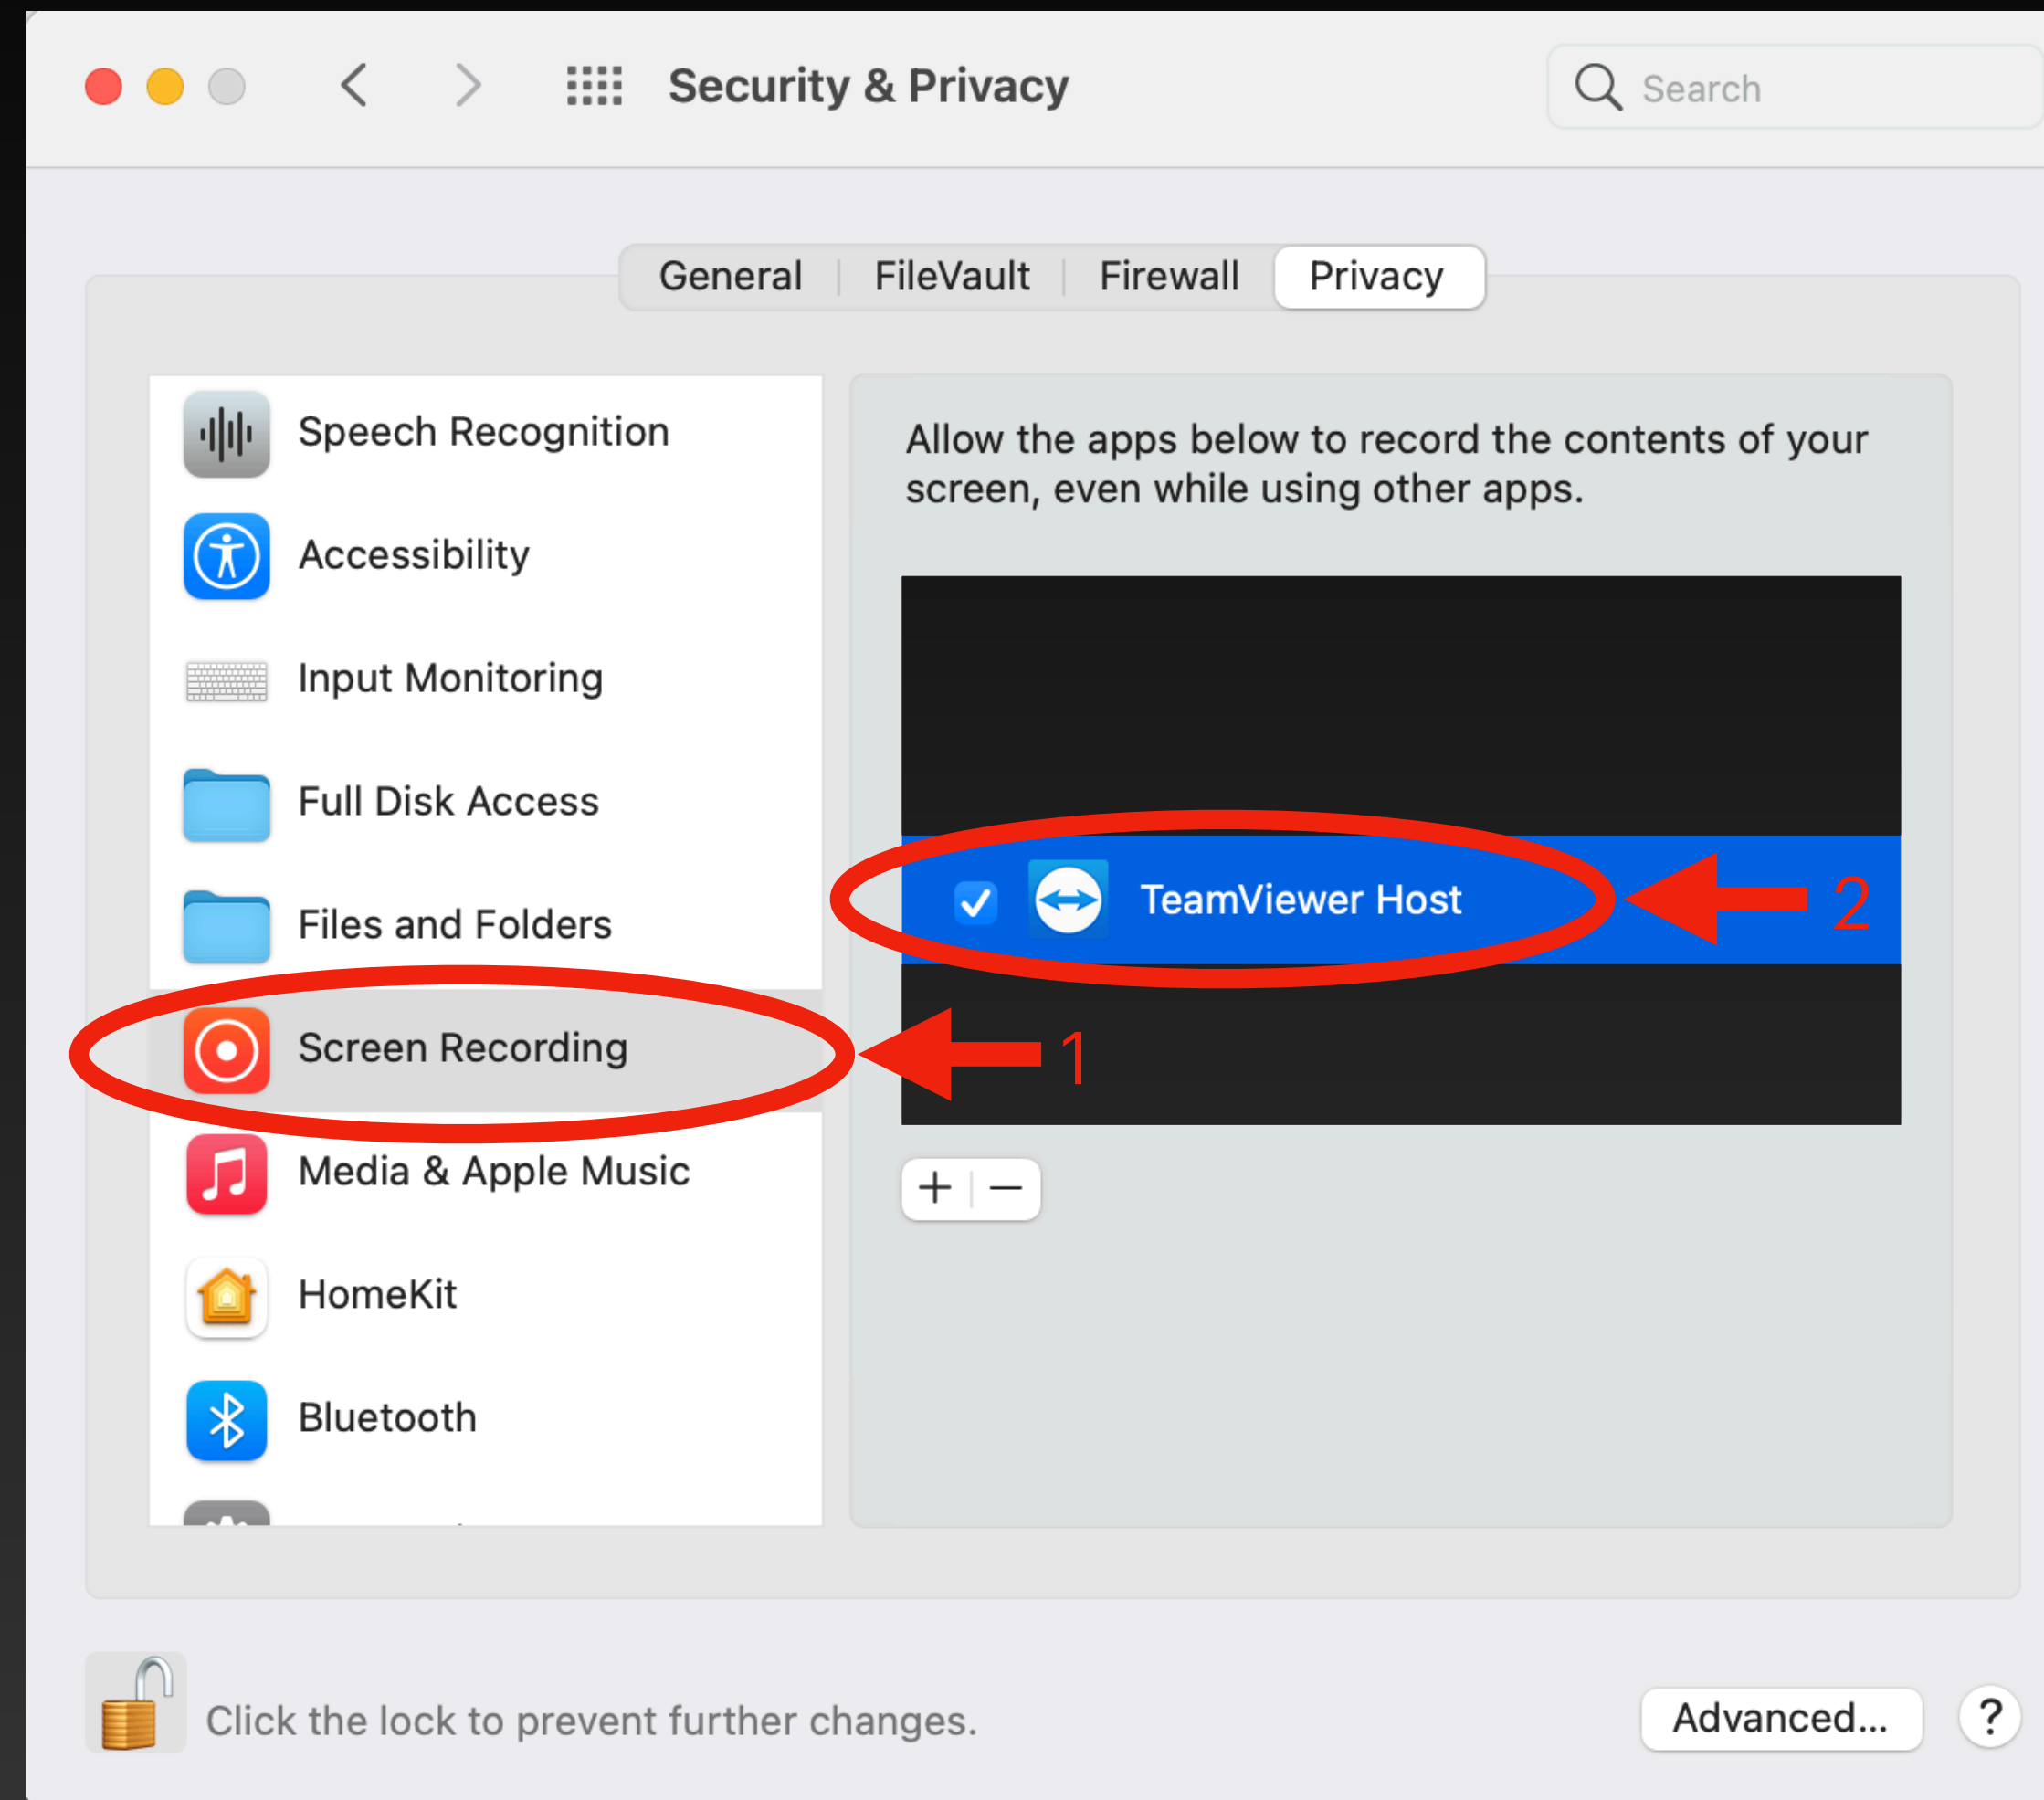

3 (B) previous page [7/14]
